Pulmonary Vascular Research Institute

Pulmonary Vascular Research Institute (PVRI) is a registered charity (no. 1127115) and a company limited by guarantee (no. 05780068).

An invitation from our President

I am delighted to invite you to join us at PVRI 2027 in Bangkok. Each year, our Congress offers a moment to take stock of progress in pulmonary vascular research, and to set the direction for what comes next. Building on the milestones of recent years, we are entering an exciting phase of growth, innovation, and global collaboration.

PVRI has always been defined by its ability to bring people together across disciplines and borders. Our community continues to expand, not only in size but in perspective — uniting clinicians, researchers, and industry partners with a shared commitment to improving outcomes in pulmonary hypertension. Our commitment to supporting early career professionals and those in low- or middle-income countries is stronger than ever.

Bangkok provides a fitting backdrop to foster these relationships. As a hub connecting regions and ideas, it reflects the increasingly global nature of our work.

PVRI 2027 will showcase cutting-edge science, foster new partnerships, and create opportunities to translate research into real-world impact.

We are committed to delivering a programme that is both scientifically rigorous and forward-looking, while continuing to support the next generation of leaders in our field.

Your involvement is vital to making this possible. Through your partnership, we are able to convene the community, amplify innovation, and sustain the collaborative spirit that defines PVRI.

I very much hope you will join us in Bangkok for what promises to be an engaging and impactful Congress.

Brad Maron
PVRI President 2026-28
